TAHUKO Celebration 2K22

The festival of Garba, also known as Tahuko, is one of the most popular and widely celebrated festivals in India. It is a vibrant and colorful celebration that is full of music, dance, and cultural significance. Recently, the Universal College of Engineering held a Tahuko celebration that brought together students, faculty, and members of the local community for an unforgettable evening of festivities.

The celebration began with the traditional lighting of the lamp by the college principal, followed by a welcome speech that set the tone for the rest of the evening. The students had organized the event, and they had decorated the venue with colorful lights, drapes, and flowers that gave the entire place a festive look and feel.

Dussehra Celebrations in UCoE

Dussehra, also known as Vijayadashami, is one of the most significant festivals in India that celebrates the triumph of good over evil. Recently, the Universal College of Engineering celebrated Dussehra with great fervor and enthusiasm.

The event started with the traditional lighting of the lamp by the college principal, followed by a brief speech that highlighted the significance of Dussehra in Indian culture. The students had decorated the venue with flowers, lights, and effigies of the ten-headed demon king Ravana, symbolizing the victory of Lord Rama over evil.

The celebration included a series of cultural programs, including traditional dances, music performances, and drama, showcasing the diversity and richness of Indian culture. The students also organized a Dussehra mela that featured food stalls, games, and other fun activities.

The highlight of the event was the burning of the effigies of Ravana, Kumbhakarna, and Meghnath, symbolizing the triumph of good over evil. The students had prepared the effigies themselves and had worked hard to make them look as realistic as possible. As the effigies burned, the crowd cheered, and fireworks filled the sky, creating a magical and surreal atmosphere.

The Dussehra celebration at the Universal College of Engineering was a beautiful and meaningful event that brought together the entire college community to celebrate the victory of good over evil. It was a reminder of the importance of righteousness, courage, and compassion in our lives and a celebration of the rich cultural heritage of India.

Laxmi Pujan Celebrations in UCoE

Recently, the Universal College of Engineering held a Laxmi Pujan celebration that brought together students, faculty, and staff to offer prayers and seek blessings from the goddess of wealth.

In conclusion, the Laxmi Pujan celebration at the Universal College of Engineering was a beautiful and meaningful event that brought together the entire college community to seek blessings and offer gratitude.

Diwali Celebrations in UCoE

The college celebrated Diwali with great zeal and enthusiasm. The campus was beautifully decorated with lights, flowers, and rangolis. Students participated in various cultural programs such as dances, skits, and musical performances. There was also a competition for the best Diwali-themed rangoli, which was won by the Fine Arts department.

The atmosphere was filled with joy and laughter as students enjoyed sweets and snacks together. The Diwali celebration brought the college community together and added to the festive spirit of the season. It was a wonderful event that will be remembered by all who attended.
